Kids vs Educators

Who are better adults or children? Today is the day we find out the answer as the children take on the educators in all things games. Kiddos get your game faces on because us educators are ready for a fun-filled day of competition.

We will be engaging in games like tug-of-war, egg and spoon races and lots of competitive games.

Time to put your farming hat on as the Farm Barn visits us today with a variety of farm animals including Goats, Rabbits, Chickens, Guinea Pigs and more.

Please remember that loud noises scare animals and we do not want the animals to be scared while they are visiting us. Therefore, it is important we are using our quiet voices around the animals when interacting with them.
